

On Wednesday, December 2, 2009, the Information Policy, Census and National Archives will hold a hearing titled: "The 2010 Census: How Complete Count Committees, Local Governments, Philanthropic Organizations, Not-for-Profits, and the Business Community can Contribute to an Accurate Census." The hearing will provide an opportunity for the Census stakeholders to provide testimony and a blueprint for those communities and governments seeking to form Complete Count Committees. The hearing will further provide an opportunity to hear testimony from urban and rural local governments partnering with the business, philanthropic and not-for-profit organizations, in an effort to achieve an accurate count.

The hearing will take place in room 2154 Rayburn House Office Building at 2:00 p.m.
